The "Knickerbocker News" local evening daily newspaper, on 6/7/61 carried two articles concerning Freedom Riders. In one, the Capital Area Council of Churches was announced as having voted to solicit funds through its member churches "to support a Freedom Rider from Albany to the South." The identity of the volunteer rider was not disclosed. This was the result of a resolution passed at the annual Council meeting held on 6/6/61, which in effect stated that if a local person could not be found for the purpose, the funds were to be turned over to Chaplain COFFIN (WILLIAM SLOAN COFFIN of Yale University) for use of Freedom Riders expenses. There appears to have been some opposition as the vote was estimated at 3 to 1 in passing the resolution.

NEW HAVEN, CONN.

The "Knickerbocker News" in the same issue in another section, carried an article indicating that the Reverend DORMAN AVERY, Negro Associate Minister of Temple Baptist Church (Albany) had volunteered to represent the Capital Area Council of Churches as a Freedom Rider in the South next month. He said he would be available to go during his vacation. The article stated further that AVERY's ride would be a return to his homeland and indicated that he grew up in Wilmington, N. C.

The "Albany Times Union," morning daily newspaper, on 6/8/61 contained an article stating that the Reverend DORMAN AVERY, identified above, would enter the South as a Freedom Rider with the financial backing of the Capital Area Council of Churches. His destination was stated not to have been determined and likewise the amount of money to be donated had not been determined. The article quoted AVERY as saying he had decided to volunteer "out of Christian concern over discrimination and injustice to people." The article described the Capital Area Council of Churches as a council of Protestant, Anglican and Eastern Orthodox churches.

DETERMINATION 1961

RACIAL MATTERS; DISRUPTION OF
AIRCRAFT OR MOTOR VEHICLES; CIVIL RIGHTS

One freedom rider was arrested upon his arrival at Jackson, Mississippi, on June 14, 1961. This brings the total number of arrests to 111. Twenty-six have been released on bond, four have been released after paying fines and 81 remain in custody. Sixteen of the freedom riders in the Jackson city jail refuse to eat.

Special J. Robert Gilley planned to move forty-five freedom riders to the State Penitentiary at Parchman, Mississippi. It was anticipated that the prisoners would be carried in three prison vans leaving Jackson between 3:00 a. m. and 4:00 a. m. on June 15, 1961. Three cars carrying twelve deputy sheriffs were to escort the vans.

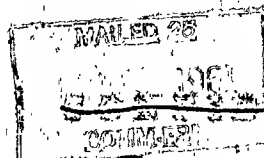

The union and professional group of freedom riders who left Washington, D. C., on June 13, 1961, on route to St. Petersburg, Florida, spent the night of June 14, 1961, at Charleston, South Carolina. They were to proceed to Seasideville, Florida, by Greyhound bus leaving Charleston at 9:35 a. m., June 15, 1961, although it was indicated that part of the group might leave at 6:35 a. m.

When the freedom riders arrived at Charleston, a Negro woman reportedly told the press that she had been threatened with a knife when she attempted to enter a restaurant at Conway, South Carolina. However, a white woman in the group is said to have remarked that the restaurant owner was making a point and had merely waved his knife.

Robert Barker, Chief of Police in Conway, advised that when one group of freedom riders passed through Conway they were refused service at a snack bar in the bus station although they were in the white waiting room and white rest room. Chief Barker had no knowledge of any incidents at Conway.

The Attorney General

The group of rabbis and ministers which left Washington, D. C., on June 13, 1961, on route to Tallahassee, Florida, continued their journey from Raleigh, North Carolina, to Jacksonville, Florida. They planned to leave Jacksonville by Greyhound bus at 6:20 p.m., June 13, 1961, to arrive in Tallahassee at 12:30 p.m.

The group of rabbis and ministers were refused integrated service when the bus stopped at Evans Restaurant which is about two miles from Sumter, North Carolina. [redacted] the restaurant, told them that he did not have a formal contract with the Greyhound Bus Company and that he would serve meals only on a segregated basis. The group returned to the bus after making a call to New York from a telephone booth.

The above group used the rest rooms and waiting rooms of the bus station at Sumter, North Carolina, on an integrated basis without incident. These rooms do not have signs indicating segregation but by custom each race uses its own facilities.

Information has been received that five freedom riders were to leave Daytona Beach, Florida, at 6:00 a.m., June 15, 1961, to travel to Tallahassee testing the facilities along the way. Three of them planned to return to Daytona Beach from Tallahassee and the other two intended to continue their freedom ride into Georgia.

A group of local law enforcement officers surveyed the bus stations in Tampa, Florida, on June 13, 1961. They reportedly found the facilities completely integrated at both the Greyhound and Trailways terminals. The rest rooms at the Trailways station are marked "White" and "Colored" but both races allegedly use either rest room at will. The police anticipate no difficulty when the freedom riders arrive.

All transportation facilities in St. Petersburg, Florida, are completely integrated; however, the St. Petersburg Police state that they will cover the arrival of the freedom riders.

Julius W. Hobson, Congress of Racial Equality (CORE), Washington, D. C., advised on June 14, 1961, that a group of freedom riders will leave Washington on June 20, 1961, or June 21, 1961. No further details are available at this time.

The Attorney General

One Negro male freedom rider reportedly left Chicago on June 13, 1961, for Nashville, Tennessee. He plans to proceed to Jackson, Mississippi, after being briefed at Nashville.

Information was previously received to the effect that James E. Jackson and Herbert Aptheker, officials of the Communist Party, USA, intended to travel to Alabama. We have been advised that the trip allegedly was canceled because it was considered that such a trip would result in trouble.

The individual who allegedly saw the Birmingham Police beat freedom riders on May 14, 1961, and whose arm was allegedly broken when he was beaten by the Birmingham Police, has been identified as

[redacted] also known as [redacted]

[redacted] is in a Detroit hospital where he is receiving treatment for an arm fracture caused by a gunshot wound received in February, 1961, at Mobile, Alabama. [redacted] stated that he hitchhiked from Mobile to Nashville about one month ago. In Nashville he received approximately $20 for transportation to Detroit. This money was obtained for him by [redacted] who contacted various people to raise this amount.

[redacted] denied any knowledge of the violence in Birmingham and said that he has not been in any bus station in Birmingham this year. He also said that he had never claimed any knowledge of the disturbance in Birmingham and he denied having alleged that he was beaten by Birmingham Police.

The Department will be promptly informed of further developments.

On 5/26/61, a spur-of-the-moment meeting was held at Middlebury College, Middlebury, Vt. by approximately 150 students to protest the jailing of freedom riders.

Chaplain and Associate Professor [redacted] Middlebury College, advised that during the previous week, Chaplain WILLIAM SLOANE COFFIN of Yale University had appeared at his request to speak to students. During discussion, he commented on his experiences in "Operation Crossroads" in taking a group to Ghana and Africa in the Summer of 1960, discussed CORE and the Peace Corps, to which he is an advisor. When COFFIN was arrested with freedom riders, students at Middlebury College, according to [redacted] asked many questions as to how they could help. The result was that [redacted] placed a cardboard box near the entrance to the cafeteria in the Student Union Building for donations to aid in legal expenses of those jailed. Due to a number of

FREEDOM RIDERS- MISC

ASAC Howell, Washington Field Office, advised at 1:55 PM of a call from the Richmond Office. Detective Sergeant [redacted] Charlottesville, Virginia, PD, has just contacted the Richmond Office to state that a Trailways bus carrying 43 white students from the Altavista, Virginia, High School had stopped at Charlottesville for lunch. They left Charlottesville at 1 PM headed for Washington, D. C. on Route #29. (This is 114 miles from Washington, D. C.) ALTAVISTA, VA.

This bus has a big sign on it, "Freedom Riders" which attracted considerable attention in Charlottesville and was afforded newspaper and television coverage. The driver complained to Sergeant [redacted] that passing motorists have been very discourteous and he was concerned about the safety of the bus. Richmond is attempting to determine if this is only a "prank" by high school students en route to Washington, D. C., on tour and additional information will be furnished as we receive it.

Virginia and Washington, D. C. law enforcement authorities were alerted by Washington Field Office. [redacted] in Mr. DeLoach's office was also alerted.

The action is being brought to redress deprivation of rights, privileges and immunities secured to plaintiffs by the Constitution and laws of the United States (due process and equal protection clauses of the Fourteenth Amendment) and Article I, Section 8, Clause 3, of the commerce clause of the Constitution and Title 48, United States Code, Section 3 (1) and Section 916 (3). The action is being brought to enjoin the enforcement of certain statutes of the State of Mississippi requiring racial segregation on common carriers, in waiting rooms and rest room facilities used by the common carriers. The motion requested that a three-judge court be convened to hear the action and grant a preliminary and permanent injunction enjoining defendants from continuing to enforce racial segregation statutes regarding carriers and at the Jackson Municipal Airport.

The five individuals who were arrested at the Illinois Central Railroad Station in Jackson, Mississippi, on the morning of June 9, 1961, on charges of breach of the peace were tried in Jackson Municipal Court on the afternoon of June 9, 1961. All pled not guilty but were convicted and each was fined $200 and sentenced to serve four months. No part of the sentence was suspended. No incidents occurred at the trial. As of 5:00 p. m., June 9, 1961, a total of 93 individuals had been arrested at Jackson, Mississippi; 21 were released on bond and four individuals paid their fines. REC'D - READING ROOM

Of the one-hundred and eleven freedom riders who have been arrested at Jackson, Mississippi, since May 24, 1961, seventy-eight remain in custody. Twenty-nine have been released on bond and four have been released upon paying fines.

Forty-five freedom riders were transferred from Jackson to the Mississippi State Penitentiary at Parchman, Mississippi, on June 15, 1961. All of those who remain in the Jackson city jail are eating but fifteen of the freedom riders in the Hinds County jail are refusing food.

Five freedom riders were scheduled to leave Nashville, Tennessee, by Greyhound bus at 2:00 a.m., June 10, 1961, to arrive at Jackson at 12:45 p.m., June 10, 1961.

We have also received information to the effect that the Student Central Committee at Nashville is attempting to organize a freedom ride which will go from Nashville to Jackson via Birmingham and Montgomery, Alabama. It is planned that this group will leave within the next several days.

Information has been received from the Congress of Racial Equality (CORE) at New Orleans that eleven white and four Negro freedom riders will arrive in New Orleans on June 10, 1961, by train from San Francisco. They will proceed to Jackson by bus on June 10 or June 20, 1961. CORE also expects a group of freedom riders to arrive in New Orleans from Arizona on June 10, 1961.

The local press in Berkeley, California, has reported that [redacted] are among a group of eleven freedom riders who will depart for New Orleans by train on June 17, 1961.

It was reported that in 1961 one [redacted] attended two classes which were conducted by the Communist Party in Alameda County, California.

One [redacted] was reportedly sent to the Berkeley, California, area in 1940 by the Workers Party and he allegedly was active in the Independent Socialist League (ISL) prior to May, 1952. On March 3, 1957, this individual testified before a military board at Fort Ord, California, that he was then a member of ISL. The ISL was allegedly a Marxist movement.

Charles R. Glavin, national chairman, CORE, St. Louis, advised on June 16, 1961, that there are no definite plans at this time for any freedom ride to originate at St. Louis. He personally intends to travel to Jackson, Mississippi, by airplane arriving in Jackson at 7:00 p. m., June 16, 1961, but he did not specify the nature of this trip.

Several small groups of freedom riders appeared at the Columbia, South Carolina, bus station on June 15, 1961. They apparently all originated in South Carolina and there were no incidents.

Five freedom riders from Daytona Beach, Florida, traveled by bus from Daytona Beach to Thomasville, Georgia, and back to Tallahassee, Florida, on June 16, 1961, without incident. They planned to continue their trip on June 16, 1961, going to Ocala and Tampa, Florida, before returning to Daytona Beach.

The union and professional group which left Washington, D. C., on June 13, 1961, for St. Petersburg, Florida, spent the night of June 15, 1961, in Jacksonville, Florida. They planned to leave Jacksonville on two Greyhound buses departing at 8:00 a. m. and 9:00 a. m. (Eastern Standard Time), June 16, 1961, to arrive in St. Petersburg at 12:45 p. m. and 3:55 p. m. the same date.

[redacted] a known blackman, was at the bus depot in Jacksonville and appeared to be watching the freedom riders. [redacted] was watched closely by the police and there was no incident.

The group of rabbis and ministers who left Washington, D. C., on June 13, 1961, arrived at Tallahassee, Florida, by Greyhound bus at 12:40 p. m., June 16, 1961. After eating at the bus station they went to the airport and purchased tickets to proceed to New York by Eastern Air Lines at 8:20 p. m.

The Attorney General

After purchasing the tickets it was discovered that the rest rooms were allegedly closed for plumbing repairs and the restaurant was allegedly closed for a monthly cleaning. When the flight left for New York, nine of the freedom riders remained behind. In response to their inquiry they were informed that the terminal was open all night and they indicated that they would stay until they could eat in the airport restaurant even if it took a month.

The Tallahassee City Commission instructed Chief of Police Frank Stoulamire that the airport was to be closed when the last flight left at 11:42 p. m. At midnight the police asked the freedom riders to leave and they proceeded to a private home to spend the night. They held reservations to depart from Tallahassee for New York by Eastern Air Lines at 8:30 a. m. (Eastern Standard Time), June 16, 1961, but [redacted] plan to leave the group at Atlanta and proceed to Washington, D. C.

Shortly after the above group arrived in Tallahassee the police observed [redacted] a known blackman, talking to a group of air men near the bus station. He was taken to the police station, admonished and released some two hours later. [redacted] subsequently attempted to board a bus going to the airport but he was turned away by the police.

An explosion demolished a trash can in the vicinity of Vermont Avenue and H Street, Northwest, Washington, D. C., at about 11:43 p. m., on June 15, 1961. The police recovered fragments which were believed to be pieces of a two-inch pipe. There were no injuries and damage was confined to the trash can.

Shortly after the above explosion, anonymous telephone calls were received by both the police and the FBI. The caller, or callers, indicated that the explosion was to discourage freedom rides and similar bombs planted in hotels, bus depots and restaurants would be exploded unless the freedom rides are discontinued. Bus stations were searched by the police but no bombs were found.

The Attorney General

Chief of Detectives W. B. Pierce, Jackson, Mississippi, advised on June 16, 1961, that a freedom rider in the Jackson city jail told a police officer that CORE officials planned to meet with the Attorney General on June 16, 1961, and that the Attorney General will arrange for the freedom riders to be released from jail.

MacDonald Gallion, Attorney General for the State of Alabama, has directed a letter to the FBI office at Mobile in which he requested information from our files regarding the individuals including [redacted] in the office of U. S. Circuit Court of Appeals Judge Richard Rives, Montgomery, Alabama. Mr. Gallion is being informed that information in the files of the FBI is of a confidential nature and cannot be released without the authority of the Attorney General. Mr. Gallion is also being assured that any information received by the FBI which indicates a violation of state law is furnished promptly to appropriate local authorities.

Further developments will be promptly brought to the attention of the Department.

Pursuant to request of Assistant Attorney General Burke Marshall Calvin M. Whitesell, Montgomery City Attorney, has been advised to direct any inquiries to the U. S. Attorney or Mr. Marshall relative to Whitesell's prior request that FBI conduct investigation on his behalf to assist in establishing that freedom riders have placed undue burden on interstate commerce. Whitesell replied, "Hell, I won't get any help out of them, I might as well get me a court order from the judge."

Department has advised that Whitesell requested FBI produce sworn statements from freedom riders as to groups they belong to who sponsored trip, purpose, and who planned and paid for trip; results of any FBI investigation conducted on sponsoring organizations; any photos taken relative to freedom rider activity; and any other information developed material to this case.

Assistant Attorney General Marshall has indicated production of such records is improper and would not be allowed and he and [] plan to be in Montgomery 6/12/61 for the hearing on the restraining order issued against freedom riders by Judge Johnson.*

Five freedom riders arrested Jackson, Mississippi, 6/9/61 for breach of peace, tried in Jackson Municipal Court, pled not guilty and each was fined $200 and sentenced to serve four months. No part of these sentences were suspended. No incidents occurred during trial. As of 5:00 p.m., 6/9/61, a total of 98 freedom riders had been arrested at Jackson, 21 were released on bond and four have been released after payment of fines. S. Code, which make it unlawful for any common carrier to give any undue or unreasonable preference or advantage to any particular person, company, firm, etc.

Action being brought to enjoin enforcement of certain Mississippi state statutes requiring racial segregation on common carriers, in waiting rooms and rest room facilities used by common carriers. The motion requested that a three-judge court be convened to hear action and grant preliminary and permanent injunction enjoining defendants from continuing to enforce racial segregation on common carriers and at Jackson Municipal Airport. Named defendants are Attorney General of State of Mississippi, certain Jackson city officials, certain common carriers and [redacted] Cicero's Restaurant, Jackson Municipal Airport.

Additional freedom riders are reportedly scheduled to proceed to Jackson in the near future.

Another group of freedom riders are reportedly planning to leave New York on an unspecified date by bus traveling along eastern seaboard to Jacksonville, Florida. We are endeavoring to obtain additional details on these tentative plans in order that appropriate offices and local authorities can be alerted.

Information has been received that bus carrying 43 white students from Altavista, Virginia High School was en route to Washington, D. C., on afternoon of 6/9/61. Bus carried sign on its side "Freedom Riders." Metropolitan Police Department (MPD) and Arlington Police Department (APD) alerted and APD indicated in view of possibility of disturbance being caused by sign, it would discreetly request sign be removed if it is a "prank." If APD is unsuccessful, MPD will also attempt to have sign removed. (The bus arrived in Washington last night bearing no signs. Police described incident as high school boys' prank.)

Memorandum for Mr. Belmont

DETAILS

With respect to the request of Mr. Calvin M. Whitesell, Montgomery City Attorney, on 6/8/61 that the Bureau conduct investigation to assist in establishing that the freedom riders have placed an undue burden on interstate commerce, pursuant to Assistant Attorney General Burke Marshall's request, Whitesell was advised to direct any inquiries to U. S. Attorney Hartwell Davis or Assistant Attorney General Marshall of the Civil Rights Division. Upon being so informed Mr. Whitesell stated, "Hell, I won't get any help out of them, I might as well get me a court order from the judge." It is noted that Judge Johnson is presently on vacation and out of telephonic contact, and it is therefore unknown as to the manner in which Whitesell will secure the above-mentioned order.

The Department has advised that the records which Whitesell has asked the FBI to produce are as follows:

1. Sworn statements from people who rode buses into Alabama covering groups or organizations they belonged to, who sponsored their trip, the purpose, who planned their trip, who paid for the trip, why they were chosen.
2. Records of FBI on each individual covering any investigation made by FBI into or concerning these sponsoring organizations.
3. Any photo or film in possession of FBI concerning activities of riders and sponsoring organizations.
4. Any investigation made since May 20th into the organization activities.
5. Any further investigation into this matter that would provide material evidence in this case.

Burke Marshall has indicated he does not intend to allow the production of such records as he doesn't feel it is proper and that he and [] plan to go to Montgomery and be there on Monday, 6/12/61, at which time there will be a hearing on the restraining order issued against the freedom riders by Judge Johnson based on the premise that such rides incite violations and place a burden on interstate commerce. On 6/8/61 [] filed a brief requesting the order against the freedom riders be dismissed. Judge Johnson refused pending hearing on 6/12/61.

Five freedom riders were arrested at the Illinois Central Railroad Station, Jackson, Mississippi, at 5:35 a. m., 6/9/61, for breach of the peace and tried in Jackson Municipal Court at 3:00 p. m. on that same date. They all pled not guilty and each was fined $200 and sentenced to serve four months. No part of the sentences were suspended. No incidents occurred during the trial. Two freedom riders arrested on 6/8/61 were released on appeal bonds on the evening of 6/8/61. One individual arrested on 5/24/61 and one other arrested on 5/31/61 were released on bond on 6/9/61. Two freedom riders arrested on 5/30/61 paid their fines and were released on 6/9/61. As of 5:00 p. m., 6/9/61, a total of 98 freedom riders had been arrested at Jackson. Twenty-one were released on bond and four had been released after payment of fines. A total of 73 individuals remain in custody.

Three Negroes filed complaint and motion for temporary injunction on 6/9/61 with the clerk of the U. S. District Court, Southern District of Mississippi, Jackson, Mississippi. According to the complaint the action is being brought to redress deprivation of rights, privileges and immunities secured to plaintiffs by the Constitution and laws of the United States (due process and equal protection clauses of the 14th Amendment) and Article 1, Section 8, Clause 3, the commerce clause of the Constitution and Title 49, U. S. Code, Section 3 (1) and Section 316 (d). These sections of Title 49 make it unlawful for any common carrier to give any undue or unreasonable preference or advantage to any particular person, company, firm, etc. The action is being brought to enjoin enforcement of certain statutes of the State of Mississippi requiring racial segregation on common carriers, waiting rooms and rest room facilities used by common carriers. The motion for the injunction requested the court convene a three-judge court to hear the action and grant a preliminary and permanent injunction enjoining defendants from continuing to enforce racial segregation statutes regarding common carriers and at the Jackson Municipal Airport.

a Trailways bus which has a stopover in Memphis, Tennessee; however, there are no plans to test facilities until the group reaches Jackson, Mississippi. Time of departure has not been set. The group is reportedly made up of individuals from Cleveland, Ohio, New York City area and Chicago, Illinois. Information has also been received that the Congress of Racial Equality is planning a freedom ride from St. Louis, Missouri, to Jackson, Mississippi, on 6/17/61. We are endeavoring to obtain additional details on this.

Information has also been received that an integrated group of five male and nine female freedom riders are to leave New York on an unspecified date by bus to travel to Washington, D. C.; Richmond, Virginia; Wilmington, North Carolina; Charleston, South Carolina; and Jacksonville, Florida. We are endeavoring to obtain additional details on this reported trip in order that appropriate offices and local authorities can be advised.

The Charlottesville, Virginia, Police Department advised on the afternoon of 6/9/61 that a Trailways bus carrying 43 white students from the Altavista, Virginia, High School en route to Washington, D. C., was bearing a sign on its side "Freedom Riders." The bus driver complained that motorists were being discourteous on the highway and he was concerned for the safety of the students. The Metropolitan Police Department and Arlington, Virginia, Police Department have been alerted and an officer of the Arlington Police Department stated that in view of the possibility of a disturbance being caused by the sign on the bus, he would discreetly request to have the sign removed if it is a "prank." If the Arlington Police Department is unsuccessful, the Metropolitan Police Department will also attempt to have it removed. (The bus arrived in Washington, D. C., last night bearing no signs. Metropolitan Police Department described incident as high school boys' prank.)

FREEDOM RIDERS
RACIAL MATTERS

In the June 3, 1961, issue of the "Chicago Daily Tribune", a Chicago, Illinois daily newspaper, in part one, page 3, columns 7 and 8, an article appeared captioned "JOIN FREEDOM RIDERS, N. U. STUDENTS TOLD."

The article stated Walter Bergman, former professor at Wayne State University, Detroit, Michigan, and who has led some of the Freedom Riders, on June 2, 1961, spoke before a group of Northwestern University students at Evanston, Illinois. Bergman urged the students to take public transportation home after their final examinations. He said to mix racially and to "'take the integrated route home'". Bergman said he did not agree with the Attorney General's plea for a "'cooling off period'" and said "'We are making to strike while the iron is hot'".

A source advised in early June, 1961, that Dr. Walter Bergman and his wife while in Chicago are staying at [redacted] the residence of [redacted] Dr. Bergman is scheduled to be in Detroit, Michigan, by June 23, 1961.

AMERICAN SOCIALIST CLUBS, Formerly known as the Socialist Union of America

A source on November 8, 1954, advised the Socialist Union of America (SUA) was formed by a minority group which broke away from the Socialist Workers Party (SWP) primarily because the minority group believed the SWP should enter the Communist Party (CP) and other left-wing groups with the intention of swinging those groups "right or left", thereby making a revolution possible in a shorter time. The SUA was formerly organized at the Midwest Founding Conference held November 21, 1953, at Detroit, Michigan.

A second source on May 4, 1959, advised that during a conference of the SUA held in Chicago, Illinois, on June 1 and 2, 1957, the SUA was dissolved and the American Socialist Clubs (ASC) was organized as its successor.

The conference adopted a statement of purpose indicating its objectives were the education and organization of new socialist forces to prepare the way for building a new movement of democratic socialism in the United States and to support its monthly magazine, the "American Socialist" (AS), as a prime force in such education.

A third source advised on November 24, 1959, that at an ASC meeting held in Detroit, Michigan, in November, 1959, it was decided to abolish the ASC and discontinue publishing the AS.

A fourth source advised on January 5, 1960, that the office of the ASC located at 857 Broadway, New York 3, New York, was closed as of December 31, 1959.

The SWP and the CP have been designated by the Attorney General of the United States pursuant to Executive Order #10450.

(U) [An eighth source advised on June 6, 1961, that approximately 70 inter-racial persons peacefully demonstrated in front of the Trailways Bus Terminal, 20 East Randolph Street, Chicago, from 6:30 p.m. to 8:00 p.m. the evening of June 5, 1961. The persons in this group carried Freedom Riders signs and distributed leaflets. Between 15 and 20 Chicago Policemen were on the scene and no trouble occurred.]

(U) [This same source advised that following the demonstration a Freedom Riders rally was held at 32 West Randolph Street from 8:00 p.m. to 10:00 p.m. Between 400 and 500 persons attended this rally and about one half of the persons in attendance were Negro.]

(U) [An appeal for donations was made and $498 was collected.]

(U) [Dr. Walter Bergman, retired Professor from Wayne State University, Detroit, Michigan, was the principal speaker. On the speakers platform with him were four of the Freedom Riders who had accompanied Dr. Bergman on his tour in the Southern States.]

RE: FREEDOM RIDERS

(U) Dr. Bergman stated the rally was sponsored by the Committee On Racial Equality (CORE). Dr. Bergman emphasized this point by mentioning this fact several times during the course of his speech. Dr. Bergman also said he wanted to give thanks to the Students Ad Hoc Committee to Support the Freedom Riders. ~~X~~

(U) Dr. Bergman said that right can be won with God's help and urged everyone to pray. He said right after school lets out and when final examinations are over that these students should take one day of training at the Liberty Baptist Church, Chicago, where they will learn to be Pacifists and not to fight back. He said the students should then proceed south by bus and fill the Jackson, Mississippi jails. ~~X~~

(U) Dr. Bergman said if this can be done freedom will be won for all by July 4th. ~~X~~

(U) It was announced at the close of the meeting that there would be another demonstration in front of the Trailways Bus Terminal, 20 East Randolph Street, at 12 noon Saturday, June 10, 1961. ~~X~~ ||

(U) The Students Ad Hoc Committee to Support the Freedom Riders, according to the ninth source, is a "one time" committee comprised of interested students from the Chicago, Illinois area universities to support the Freedom Riders.

(U) The ninth source advised in July, 1952, that ~~one~~ Walter Bergman, not further identified, in March, 1941, was a "left-wing labor leader in Detroit, Michigan."

G-2, Chicago, was advised of the above information on July 6, 1961.

The Chicago Police Department was advised of the announced demonstration of June 10, 1961, on June 6, 1961.

RE: FREEDOM RIDERS

INDEPENDENT SOCIALIST LEAGUE (ISL)
FORMERLY WORKERS PARTY (WP)

The May 4, 1942, issue of "Labor Action", then an official publication of the Workers Party (WP), carried an article which reflected that the WP was formed in April, 1940, as a result of a split within the leadership of the Socialist Workers Party (SWP). The article stated that when the Hitler-Stalin Pact was signed and Poland invaded, the minority group with the SWP, in proclaiming the formation of the WP, condemned the pact as being imperialistic in nature and stated it would not support either imperialist camp.

The April 25, 1949, issue of "Labor Action" contained an account of the Fifth National Convention of the WP, held March 24-27, 1949, in New York City, which reflected the change of name of the organization from the WP to the Independent Socialist League (ISL) in order to emphasize the character of the group as a propaganda group for the spreading of socialist ideas and not as a full-fledged political party.

The July 14, 1958, issue of "Labor Action", an official publication of the ISL, contained an article captioned "The ISL Program in Brief." The article indicated: "The ISL stands for socialist democracy and against the two systems of exploitation which now divide the world: capitalism and Stalinism. The ISL, as a Marxist movement, looks to the working class and its ever-present struggle as the basic progressive force in society. The ISL is organized to spread the ideas of socialism in the labor movement and among all other sections of the people. There can be no lasting and genuine democracy without socialism and there can be no socialism without democracy."

The September 22, 1958, issue of "Labor Action" contained an undated statement signed by the Political Committee of the ISL which indicated that the ISL had been dissolved. The statement urged former ISL members to join the Socialist Party - Social Democratic Federation.

A source advised on October 10, 1958, that the Chicago Branch of the ISL, which was an affiliate of the national organization, was dissolved in September, 1958, and all active members joined the Socialist Party - Social Democratic Federation on October 9, 1958.

The SWP has been designated by the Attorney General of the United States pursuant to Executive Order #10450.

PROGRESSIVE YOUTH ORGANIZING COMMITTEE

A source advised in January, 1961, that the Progressive Youth Organizing Committee (PYOC) was formed at an organizing conference held in Chicago, December 30, 1960, to January 1, 1961. The Conference was initiated and organized by the CP, USA, for the purpose of setting in motion forces with a program to establish an organizing committee the ultimate purpose of which was to organize a national socialist oriented youth organization within one year.

A source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised as follows on June 6, 1961:

At 10:00 pm on June 5, 1961, in Jacksonville, Florida, the conductor of above-captioned train was overheard telling the porter to separate the white and colored people as they boarded the train. Later on the conductor told several individuals, including the above source, that he could not integrate his train in view of the trouble caused by the "Freedom Riders."

The source stated that captioned train was still segregated as it arrived in Miami, Florida, on June 6, 1961.

[redacted] Central Intelligence Corps, Region 7, Miami, Florida, and Sergeant [redacted] of the Miami Police Department, were furnished the above information on June 6, 1961.

Five freedom riders from Nashville, Tennessee, were arrested in Jackson, Mississippi, at 1:15 p.m., June 16, 1961, when attempting to test bus station facilities. They were tried in municipal court the same day together with [redacted] a lone freedom rider who was arrested June 14, 1961. All were found guilty, sentenced to four months in jail and fined $200 each.

Of the one hundred sixteen freedom riders who have been arrested at Jackson since May 24, 1961, eighty-three remain in custody. Twenty-nine have been released on bond and four have been released upon paying fines.

It is reported that attorneys representing three freedom riders arrested earlier this month in Jackson plan to file writs of habeas corpus in United States District Court. The writs will seek release of the three freedom riders and may be filed this week end.

The Tucson, Arizona, Chapter of the Congress of Racial Equality (CORE) announced plans to send five individuals to New Orleans on June 19, 1961. They are to receive training there by CORE and will presumably later travel to Jackson as freedom riders.

On the night of June 15, 1961, a meeting of approximately forty Negro freedom riders was held at Columbia, South Carolina. It was sponsored by the South Carolina Conference of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People (NAACP) in support of CORE and the freedom riders. Leaders reportedly were disappointed in the small attendance.

The group of five freedom riders which left Daytona Beach, Florida, on June 15, 1961, continued its trip to Tampa, Florida. Upon arrival there at 6:49 p.m., June 16, 1961, no test was made.

of bus terminal facilities. After determining that the next bus for Orlando, Florida, was scheduled to depart at 6:00 a.m., June 17, 1961, the group proceeded to the residence of NAACP Field Secretary [redacted]. Facilities were tested at various points between Tallahassee and Tampa without incident.

The union and professional group of freedom riders which left Washington, D. C., on June 13, 1961, spent the night of June 15, 1961, at Jacksonville, Florida. These individuals departed from Jacksonville in two separate buses on the morning of June 16, 1961, after testing bus station facilities without incident. Both buses proceeded to St. Petersburg, Florida, arriving there on the afternoon of the same day. Members of the groups used or attempted to use bus station facilities at various locations along the way. Other than the following, there were no incidents of significance.

In Ocala, Florida, three members of one of the groups were arrested at approximately 1:00 p.m., June 16, 1961. This occurred as a result of an argument between freedom riders and a number of white males in the bus station waiting room. The three were charged with failure to obey the lawful order of an officer and attempting to incite a riot. Their bus proceeded without them. They were subsequently released on $1,000 bond each which was posted by [redacted] one of the members of the group who remained behind for that purpose. These four individuals then proceeded by bus to Tampa.

In the St. Petersburg bus station, a drunken white male made some obnoxious remarks relative to the freedom riders who were there. He was arrested and charged with being drunk by the St. Petersburg police.

On the afternoon of June 16, 1961, members of both groups attended a "work shop" at the Second Bethel Baptist Church in St. Petersburg. A mixed group of approximately twenty-five individuals reportedly attended the session at which local Negroes were encouraged to follow up on integration efforts. Sources reported one of the participants to be [redacted] a white professor at Florida Presbyterian College. He may be identical with [redacted] who, during an interview by Bureau Agents in 1954, admitted having been a member of the Communist Party.

At 8:00 p.m. that evening, a public meeting was held in the church and members of the freedom riders were introduced to those in attendance. Various freedom riders spoke to the mixed audience of approximately fifty individuals. The meeting adjourned shortly after 10:00 p.m. and the freedom riders proceeded to nearby Tampa International Airport.

They, together with the four freedom riders who had separated from the group in Ocala, departed by airplane for New York City at 12:57 a.m., June 17, 1961.

A car registered to [redacted] alleged to be an Associated Press newsman, was stopped at Zephyrhills, Florida, by police for speeding. This car had been following one of the buses during the trip from Jacksonville to St. Petersburg.

The group of rabbis and ministers who spent the night of June 15, 1961, in Tallahassee, Florida, were joined by three persons from Tallahassee. The thirteen went to the Tallahassee airport on the morning of June 16, 1961. They found airport facilities closed and after refusing to leave the vicinity they were arrested by Tallahassee police for unlawful assembly shortly after noon of that day. Earlier, the Chief of Police withdrew practically all officers from the airport after advising the freedom riders he could no longer afford them protection due to his responsibility to the city of Tallahassee. A representative of the group contacted our Jacksonville Office in this regard and was informed that no protection could be afforded by the FBI.

At 8:14 a.m. on June 16, 1961, an explosion shattered a telephone booth at Fifteenth Street and Massachusetts Avenue, Northwest, Washington, D. C. Examination of the scene by FBI Laboratory personnel disclosed that the device used in this explosion was similar to that which demolished a trash can on the night of June 15, 1961. The devices appear to have been constructed from galvanized pipe and contained shotgun powder.

Pertinent information concerning the explosions and a number of subsequent anonymous telephone bomb threats has been furnished to interested local and Federal agencies. We are maintaining close liaison with the Metropolitan Police Department and have offered our cooperative facilities.

It is noted that during the early morning of June 16, 1961, a number of anonymous telephone calls were received in which the caller indicated he had planted bombs in several Washington, D. C., locations for the purpose of stopping the freedom riders.

Further pertinent developments will be promptly brought to the attention of the Department.

SA [REDACTED] Jackson, Mississippi, telephonically advised at 12:40 p.m. that an additional freedom rider had been arrested by the Jackson Police Department. He stated that [REDACTED] was arrested at 5:35 a.m. at the Greyhound Bus terminal. [REDACTED] who is white, male, came to Jackson from Memphis, Tennessee. He entered the colored waiting room and the colored rest room and was arrested when he refused to move on.

[REDACTED] is described as white male [REDACTED] pounds. He was born [REDACTED] at Washington, D. C. He presently resides at [REDACTED] Cleveland, Ohio.

[REDACTED] claims to have previously been arrested by the San Francisco, California, Police Department on a [REDACTED] charge in 1959; by the North Platte, Nebraska, Police Department on a [REDACTED] charge in 1959; and by the police department at St. Petersburg, Florida, on a [REDACTED] charge, no date given.

[REDACTED] is scheduled to be tried on 6/14/61. He was arrested under Section 2089.5, the general breach of peace statute. This provides for six months' imprisonment and $500 fine.

[REDACTED] was questioned regarding the hunger strike at the city jail. He stated that the last report was that 13 were not eating at the city jail. He was asked if Price Chatam, one of those arrested, had also been one of the hunger strikers. Hegelson stated he did not have any information from the police as to the identities of the individuals who were not eating. He stated that the police distributed the food and then at the completion of the meal they would count the number of plates which had not been touched. He advised that the police were apparently interested only in the number who were not eating and not in the identity of the noneaters.

[REDACTED] also advised there had been no reports of anyone not eating at the county jail.

[REDACTED] further advised that the prisoners at the city jail had not been removed to the state penitentiary as of June 14, 1961.

Observations were made at the Illinois Central Railroad (ICRR) Station on May 30, 1961.

At 10:00 AM, twelve uniformed officers of the Jackson Police Department were located in the station and four or more outside. There were small groups of spectators totaling about twenty-five within a radius of one block.

ICRR train, "The City of New Orleans," arrived at Jackson at 10:12 AM. A group of newsmen and photographers were first to get off. They were followed by eight Freedom Riders. This group consisted of five white males, two Negro females, one Negro male.

[redacted] of the New Orleans Times-Picayune, identified the Negro males as [redacted] from Florence, [redacted] was the spokesman for the group.

The Freedom Riders went directly to the white waiting room of the station where Captain [redacted] of the Jackson Police Department, ordered them to move on. When they did not leave the waiting room he placed the group under arrest. [redacted] asked why they were being arrested and was informed by Captain [redacted] that the arrest was for "breach of the peace." The Freedom Riders were not searched but directed to the patrol wagon parked at the side of the station with the exception of [redacted] who was allowed to make a recording of an interview with a member of the press in the white waiting room. This interview lasted approximately five minutes.

When the train arrived a crowd of about seventy-five people was at the platform. Many of these people were passengers who boarded the train. A large group of newsmen was present. [redacted] Jackson news reporter, advised that [redacted] CORE Field Representative from Chicago, Illinois, met the Freedom Riders at the ICRR Station platform but did not go with them to the white waiting room where the arrests took place. Miss [redacted] a Negro male from Nashville, Tennessee, who arrived in Jackson, Mississippi, on May 29, 1961, was also observed on the railroad platform to meet the train. He did not go to the white waiting room and was not arrested. Tenn. - Mr. S.S.

Dear Sir:

Woonsocket R.I.

It is my contention that the freedom riders can inflame the whole South particularly now since they are enlarging their ranks with Northern sympathizers and this is doubly aggravating to a Southerner.

There is not progress for the colored people.

Instead of hedgehopping from State to State they should concentrate their efforts in one State until that State yields - this is orderly progress.

All our mistakes from now on will be magnified to Canada and So. America by the Soviet.

DETAILS

[redacted] a freedom rider who was arrested at Jackson, Mississippi, 5/28/61, and [redacted] a freedom rider who was arrested at Jackson, Mississippi, 5/24/61, were released 6/13/61 on $500 cash bonds.

Since 5/24/61, 110 freedom riders have been arrested at Jackson. Twenty-six have been released on bond, four have been released upon payment of fines and 80 remain in custody. Thirteen freedom riders confined in the Jackson city jail are refusing to eat.

It was previously reported that a group of freedom riders would leave Chicago, 6/13/61, for Nashville, Tennessee, where they would arrange for travel by bus to Jackson, Mississippi. [redacted] CORE, Chicago, advised on 6/13/61 that the group would not leave Chicago until 6/16/61.

It has been previously reported that a freedom ride was contemplated by train from St. Louis, Missouri, or East St. Louis, Illinois, to Jackson, Mississippi, on 6/17/61. On 6/13/61 Charles R. Oldham, National Chairman, CORE, St. Louis, advised that the plans for this trip are still indefinite but will be formulated at a meeting on 6/14/61.

The two groups of freedom riders whose final destinations are Tallahassee, Florida, and St. Petersburg, Florida, left Washington, D. C., by Greyhound bus as scheduled 6/13/61. In passing through Richmond, Virginia, both groups ate at desegregated facilities in the bus terminal without incident.

The so-called union and professional group, consisting of five Negro males, two Negro females, five white males and two white females, did leave Washington, D. C., 6/13/61 by Greyhound bus arriving at Wilmington, North Carolina, at 6:08 p. m. They used the white waiting room without incident. They were met by a biracial crowd of approximately 100 persons at the terminal.

The above group left the Greyhound bus station in taxicabs operated by Negroes and proceeded to the Payne Tourist Home where they had reservations for the night. Their bills for board and lodging were paid by [redacted]

Memorandum for Mr. Belmont

Wilmington, who was assisted in making arrangements for the group by Reverend [redacted] Negro minister of the Ephesus Seventh-Day Adventist Church. The group ate in Negro restaurants in the vicinity of the tourist home.

A representative of the Wilmington Chapter, NAACP, advised local authorities that the group of freedom riders did not want any trouble and was apprehensive regarding the publicity and the crowd which was encountered at the bus depot. The NAACP had proposed to welcome the freedom riders but canceled these plans upon receiving a telegram from the group prior to their arrival in Wilmington. It was further stated that the group will continuously split up to smaller groups so that if any single group is arrested other groups will remain which can proceed to their final destination at St. Petersburg, Florida.

The above group reportedly intended to leave Wilmington on two separate buses departing at 7:30 a. m. , and 12:30 p. m. , 6/14/61, arriving in Jacksonville, Florida, on the evening of 6/14/61. Information received previously indicated that they intended to spend the night of 6/14/61 in Charleston, South Carolina.

The other group of freedom riders which left Washington, D. C. , 6/13/61, en route to Tallahassee, Florida, reportedly consists of three newspaper reporters as well as eleven Negro and two white rabbis and ministers. They arrived at Raleigh, North Carolina, by Greyhound bus at 4:45 p. m. , 6/13/61, and indicated to the press that they were pleased with the bus terminal facilities at Raleigh. They were spending the night of 6/13/61 in Raleigh at the homes of faculty members of Shaw University and planned to depart from Raleigh by Greyhound bus at 9:50 a. m. , 6/14/61, en route to Sumter, South Carolina, where they will test the facilities and then continue to Jacksonville, Florida, arriving at 6:45 a. m. , 6/15/61. From Jacksonville they plan to proceed to Tallahassee, Florida, where they will test the facilities at the airport and then proceed to New York by airplane 6/15/61 at 2:25 p. m.

No incidents occurred with regard to the travel of either of the above groups. However, [redacted] who is with the union and professional group, advised the Charlotte Office on the evening of 6/13/61 that he had heard rumors there would be trouble at Wilmington and had been instructed that he should call the FBI if any violence occurred.

Memorandum for Mr. Belmont

The North Carolina Highway Patrol had forty men in readiness on the outskirts of Wilmington when the freedom riders arrived 6/13/61. All but fifteen were dismissed later in the evening.

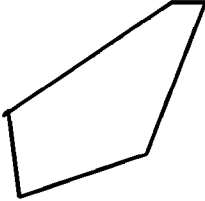

[redacted] of the Student Central Committee, Nashville, Tennessee, advised on the evening of 6/13/61 that [redacted] had informed the Committee as follows:

[redacted] was employed as a shoeshine boy at the Trailways bus station in Birmingham, Alabama, when the freedom riders arrived 5/14/61 and encountered a violent mob. Prior to the arrival of the bus [redacted] allegedly observed police officers change into civilian clothing and later saw these police officers attack the freedom riders. When [redacted] left for his home the officers followed him and beat him breaking his arm. He was then taken to the Hillmer Hospital where his arm was set and put in a cast. Upon being released from the hospital he hitchhiked to Nashville where he contacted the Student Central Committee on 5/21/61.

On the basis of [redacted] story the Student Central Committee gave him $20 for transportation to Detroit, Michigan. [redacted] said that he did not believe that [redacted] had furnished this information to any authorities. It is noted that extensive investigation into the violence at the bus station has not developed any indication that police officers engaged in the violence. Arrangements are being made for the immediate interview of [redacted] and his story will be checked out in detail.

No record pertaining to [redacted] was found in the General Indices or in the records of the Identification Division.

Memorandum for Mr. Belmont

DETAILS

[redacted] a lone white freedom rider, arrived at Jackson, Mississippi,¹ by Greyhound bus from Memphis, Tennessee, and was arrested at 5:35 AM, 6/14/61 when he entered the Negro waiting room and refused to move on. His trial is scheduled for 6/16/61.

Since 5/24/61, 111 freedom riders have been arrested at Jackson. Twenty-six have been released on bond, four have been released upon payment of fines and 81 remain in custody.

Sixteen freedom riders at the Jackson city jail refuse to eat. They were examined by a physician on 6/14/61 and were found to be in satisfactory condition.

Sheriff Gilfoy advised on 6/14/61 that he intended to transfer 45 freedom riders from Jackson to the Mississippi State Penitentiary at Parchman, Mississippi, leaving Jackson between 3:30 AM and 4:00 AM, 6/15/61. The prisoners were to be transported in three prison vans escorted by three cars and twelve deputy sheriffs. Sheriff Gilfoy stated that the press was to have no advance notice of the transfer of the prisoners.

The union and professional group of freedom riders who left Washington, D. C., 6/13/61 en route to St. Petersburg, Florida, continued their trip from Wilmington, North Carolina, on 6/14/61. They left in two groups with seven in each group traveling by Greyhound bus. One bus arrived at Charleston, South Carolina, at 12:06 PM, 6/14/61. The other bus arrived at 5:20 PM, 6/14/61. The freedom riders used white facilities in the bus stations at Wilmington and Charleston without incident.

[redacted] National Association for the Advancement of Colored People (NAACP) representative at Charleston, informed the Charleston Police Department (PD) that the freedom riders would spend the night of 6/14/61 at various private homes in Charleston and would depart for Jacksonville, Florida, by Greyhound bus on the morning of 6/15/61. Brown also told the police that it had not been determined whether the entire group would leave at 9:35 AM or whether part of the group would leave at 6:15 AM and the remainder of the group would leave at 9:35 AM.

Memorandum for Mr. Belmont

W. F. Kelly, Chief of Police, Charleston, advised that he had heard that a Negro female told reporters at the bus station in Charleston that while the bus was in Conway, South Carolina, she attempted to enter an eating establishment which was not connected with the bus station and a man pulled a knife from under the table and said that she could not eat there. Chief Kelly also heard that a white female in the group said that the restaurant owner had been making salad and merely waved his knife at the woman.

Hubert Barker, Chief of Police, Conway, South Carolina, stated that one group of freedom riders en route to Charleston had arrived at the bus terminal in Conway at approximately 9:40 AM, 6/14/61 and departed a few minutes later without testing the facilities. A second group arrived at about 2:30 PM, 6/14/61 and was refused service at a snack bar in the bus station although they did use the white waiting room and white rest room. Chief Barker had no knowledge of any incidents at Conway.

The group of rabbis and ministers who left Washington, D. C., 6/13/61 for Tallahassee, Florida, continued their journey from Raleigh, North Carolina, leaving by Greyhound bus at 10:05 AM, 6/14/61. They arrived at Sumter, South Carolina, at 2:30 PM. Just before reaching Sumter, and approximately two miles from the Sumter bus station, the bus made a regularly scheduled stop at Evans Restaurant. The freedom riders went to the door of the restaurant and requested service on an integrated basis. [redacted] [redacted] informed them that he had facilities available for both races and would serve meals on a segregated basis only. The freedom riders said that they were interstate passengers and [redacted] replied that he had no official contract with the Greyhound bus company and would not serve meals on an integrated basis. The group made a telephone call to New York from a phone booth and then boarded the bus.

At the bus station in Sumter the freedom riders used the rest rooms and the waiting rooms on an integrated basis. These rooms have no signs indicating that the facilities are segregated but by tradition members of each race normally use separate facilities. The group left the bus station in taxicabs and gathered at the Emanuel Negro Baptist Church. They planned to leave Sumter by Greyhound bus at 12:28 AM, 6/15/61, arriving in Savannah, Georgia, at 3:45 AM. They also intended to leave Savannah at 4:00 AM to arrive at Jacksonville at 7:25 AM, 6/15/61. They intend to leave Jacksonville at 8:20 AM by Greyhound bus arriving at Tallahassee 12:30 PM, 6/15/61. It has been reported that they will test the facilities at Savannah, Jacksonville and Tallahassee before returning to New York by airplane from Tallahassee on the afternoon of 6/15/61. (See page seven for subsequent travel)

Memorandum for Mr. Belmont

Representatives of the South Carolina Law Enforcement Division will follow the bus carrying the rabbis and ministers to the Georgia State line even though they anticipate no trouble.

Local authorities in Jacksonville plan to closely cover and follow the activities of the freedom riders while they are in the Jacksonville area. They do not plan to make any arrests unless trouble develops.

Local authorities at Tallahassee have made elaborate plans to cover the bus station and the coverage includes the use of movie cameras. Governor Bryant has previously stated that he expects the people of Florida to ignore the freedom riders and no incidents are anticipated.

Local news sources in Jacksonville advised on 6/14/61 that Reverend E. C. Tillman, Chairman of NAACP Investigating Committee, Daytona Beach, Florida, stated that a group of five freedom riders would leave Daytona Beach at 5:00 AM, 6/15/61, to travel to Jacksonville, Lake City, Live Oak, Madison and Tallahassee testing the facilities at each stop. Detective Sergeant [redacted] Jacksonville PD has received information that three of these people planned to return to Daytona Beach from Tallahassee by airplane while two of them will proceed to Georgia to test the facilities in that state.

Julius W. Hobson, President, Washington Chapter, Congress of Racial Equality (CORE), advised on 6/14/61 that the next proposed trip of freedom riders scheduled to depart from Washington, D. C., will leave on 6/20/61 or 6/21/61. Hobson was unable to furnish any additional details at this time.

[redacted] CORE, Chicago, advised on 6/14/61 that [redacted] a Negro male, left Chicago, by bus 6/13/61 to arrive at Nashville, Tennessee, on 6/14/61. He will proceed from Nashville to Jackson, Mississippi, as a freedom rider after being briefed in Nashville by CORE. Ill

It has previously been reported that James E. Jackson, member of the National Board, Communist Party (CP), USA, and editor of "The Worker," together with Herbert Aptheker, a member of the National Committee, CP, USA, planned to travel to Alabama from New York. In view of the interest which the CP has exhibited in freedom rides it was suggested that their trip might have the purpose of exploiting the situation. A confidential informant in New York has advised that Gus Hall, General Secretary, CP, USA, said the trip was canceled because it would have resulted in trouble.

Memorandum for Mr. Belmont

It was previously reported by [redacted] Student Central Committee, TENN
Nashville, Tennessee, that [redacted] was [redacted] at Mobile the Birmingham bus station and saw police engage in violence on 5/14/61. ALA

[redacted] received a broken arm when he was beaten by Birmingham police 5/14/61. This individual has been identified as [redacted] who is also known as [redacted]

[redacted] interviewed in a Detroit hospital where he is undergoing treatment for an arm fracture caused by [redacted] received in February, 1961, at Mobile, Alabama. [redacted] was accidentally inflicted by one Louis Johnson who was subsequently charged with assault by the Mobile police.

[redacted] denied any knowledge of the violence at Birmingham. He related that he had hitchhiked from Mobile to Nashville last month and he first heard of the freedom riders when a stranger on the street in Nashville asked him if he had been in Birmingham when the freedom riders were there.

A stranger directed [redacted] to Reverend [redacted] in TENN
Nashville and [redacted] told the minister he had been in an accident and was trying to get home to Detroit. Reverend [redacted] made several contacts in behalf of [redacted] and raised approximately $20 which he gave [redacted] for transportation to Detroit.
At one place where Reverend [redacted] attempted to raise funds some unknown person asked [redacted] if he had been hurt when the freedom riders encountered violence in Birmingham and [redacted] stated he replied that he had not. [redacted] advised that he does not know the identities of any person or agency whom Reverend [redacted] contacted in his behalf and he denied any knowledge of [redacted] or the Student Central Committee. He also said that he has never been employed as [redacted] [redacted] and that he had not been in any Birmingham bus station this year. He denied any knowledge of the statements which had been attributed to him by [redacted]

It has been determined at Birmingham that the address [redacted] furnished as purportedly being the address of [redacted] in Birmingham is nonexistent.
The nearest address is an apartment building occupied by white tenants in a white neighborhood. The Trailways bus station at Birmingham has never had a shoeshine stand and [redacted] is unknown to the station manager.

Memorandum for Mr. Belmont

Assistant Attorney General Burke Marshall advised on 6/14/61 that during the next week or so it will be necessary to serve papers on members of klan groups in Alabama. Marshall said there was no rush in this regard and that lists will be furnished to the Bureau so that the names can be checked out in advance.

The rabbis and ministers arrived at Savannah at 3:41 a. m. (EST) 6/15/61. They had coffee at the lunch counter at the bus station which has previously been integrated and then white members of the group entered the colored rest room and colored members of the group entered the white rest room. They left without incident at 4:19 a. m., by Greyhound bus which is scheduled to arrive at Jacksonville, 7:25 a. m. (EST) 6/15/61 (8:25 a. m. Washington time).

At 2:14 p.m., June 2, 1961, Trailways bus #5141, arrived in Jackson from Montgomery, Alabama. Three Negro riders, one male and two females, entered the "White Only" waiting room in the Trailways Terminal and were immediately told to "move on" by Captain [redacted] of the Jackson Police Department. When they failed to comply, he repeated this order and when they again failed to comply, they were arrested and placed in a police wagon. The arrest was made at approximately 2:18 p.m., and took place without any disturbance. The bus station was fairly crowded with passengers, there being perhaps forty persons present. Approximately five uniformed Jackson Police officers were inside the terminal, and several more were stationed outside. Casual bystanders were discouraged by police officers from approaching or remaining in the vicinity of the terminal. About fifteen photographers were present in the terminal.

About four minutes after the Negroes were escorted to the wagon, police officers emerged from the colored waiting room escorting three white males. The white males were placed in the wagon at approximately 2:21 p.m. without incident, and all six were driven to the city jail.

The following observations were made at the Trailways Bus Terminal, Jackson, Mississippi:

At 6:44 p.m., June 2, 1961, Trailways Bus #T2953 pulled into Dock #8. Of the passengers disembarking 3 Negro males, 1 Negro female and 1 white female entered the white waiting room as a group. They stopped approximately 25 feet inside the door and Captain [redacted] of the Jackson Police Department ordered them to move on. They did not reply to his command and stood still. He again ordered them to move on and when they failed to do so, he told them they were under arrest and instructed them to go out the front door, which they did, accompanied by officers, and were loaded into the police patrol wagon. After this group had left the white waiting room, a white male was observed to enter the white waiting room. He looked around, then went back outside toward the loading platform, looked into the colored waiting room through a window, then walked into the baggage room, stepped immediately back out of the baggage room, walked down to the loading platform and back into the white waiting room. He stopped inside the white waiting room and was addressed by a uniformed officer of the Jackson Police Department. The officer was observed to speak to him and point in the direction of the patrol wagon parked outside the front of the terminal. The white male was escorted to the patrol wagon by a police officer and was loaded in the wagon.

which of us were Freedom Riders tho we were not together. There were policemen and photographers there. When we arrived in Montgomery at 7:30 P.M. on Thursday evening crowds were around and instead of going into the station we got a cab to Rev. Abernathy's home. We were given two addresses while we were in Atlanta.

"As soon as we arrived at Rev. Abernathy's home we had dinner. After dinner we were told of the other people traveling and we were divided into two groups, one to leave the following morning at 7:30 A.M. and the other group to leave at 11:30 A.M. from Montgomery to Jackson.

[REDACTED] the Abernathy home where the group was to meet at 10:00. We left Abernathy's for the bus station by car. A total of 8 Freedom Riders were in group at this point. Rev. Abernathy drove me down in his car.

"At the bus station there were quite a few people waiting, as well as police, and for the first time members of the group used Negro facilities and Negroes used white facilities. Our bus left on schedule. The Freedom Riders tried as much as possible to integrate the bus. This was accomplished by first having the white Freedom Riders trying to occupy the first seat. The one Freedom Rider who was supposed to get in the front seat got in the back seat. Before the bus got filled the whites who occupied the seats right in front exchanged their seats with Negro Freedom Riders who were seated in the back.

"When we arrived in Selma, while the bus was waiting, one Freedom Rider saw a vacant front seat on the right side of the bus. He had given his seat to someone else and went to the front of the bus to occupy the vacant front seat. A white lady was sitting in the adjoining seat with her leg partially on the vacant seat. The Freedom Rider asked if he could sit down and the lady refused to move her leg from the seat so the Freedom Rider sat on the arm of the vacant seat. At this point others were boarding the bus. He kept insisting. The bus driver, who was most unsympathetic, asked the lady if she wanted to sign a complaint. She said she did. The County Sheriff was standing by the door and he came into the bus and told the rider that he was under arrest and being charged with molesting a lady. The rider was taken off the bus. The lady got off the bus and the bus went on.

"I went to the two vacant front seats and waited. The plan was some of the fellow Freedom Riders was to place a Negro girl in the other vacant seat. I held them up from doing this and later a Negro fellow came and occupied the seat. When we arrived in Meridian we were not allowed to get off the bus, only those that had tickets to Meridian. To enforce this idea a most unfriendly officer of the law stood and waited. I was so afraid that I would breathe the wrong way. He kept glancing at the Negro Freedom Rider beside me and I motioned to the Negro rider to be careful before we all were arrested. He was the most unfriendly officer I have ever seen in my life, including the Chicago Police.

"A lady got on the bus and said, 'I am a Southern gal and I won't sit back of no Nigger. I am still a lady,' and she sat on the front step of the bus and talked all the way. By the time we left Meridian I had a stomach ache. After about an hour and a half of riding I turned around and asked one of the Freedom Riders how he was feeling. He said in a loud tone, 'I have to urinate.' Others around heard him I am sure. I told him there was a restroom in the back of the bus and he said, 'Oh, yes, why didn't I think of it' and ran down the aisle. He was the same person who got in the end of the bus when we left Montgomery.

"By the time we arrived in Jackson all of the Freedom Riders were upset and when I saw the police cars parked near the city limits I could see them radioing ahead and by the time we turned the corner and could see the bus station I saw a big black paddy wagon in front of the bus station waiting for us. Then I recalled the sign I saw as we crossed the Mississippi line, 'Welcome to Mississippi.'

"Our bus finally stopped [redacted] to get off the bus [redacted] went to the telephone and called Chicago. No one answered [redacted] in less than two minutes [redacted] Already the Freedom Riders were out of sight. The officers in the station kept saying to move out, move out of the station or to move on. I kept moving, first to the front door. The wagon door was closed and I could not see if the Freedom Riders were in it or not so I went back to the station, to the back door. On the way I was reminded to keep moving so I did. I found myself by the colored waiting room. I did not see the door but I did see the people inside. I grabbed the first door I saw and it was the baggage room. After discovering it was the baggage room I hurried out before I got in trouble there. I did not want to leave the station because I did not know where to go. So as I was going back to the front door I was spoken to again by one of the officers so I stopped to hear what he was saying and since I stopped for a second I was placed under arrest and was taken to the wagon.

"The ride to the jail was terrible. [REDACTED]

"The Negroes who were above me had a completely different attitude and I am sure that they were not in sympathy [REDACTED]"

"There is no doubt in my mind that some of the Freedom Riders are questionable in areas of politics and that the problem was and is that the organization and leaders behind the Freedom ride should screen the riders more carefully if they are to accomplish anything for the Negro race and make the 'Freedom Ride' an effective step toward integration."

The rabbis and ministers who were arrested at Tallahassee, Florida, on June 16, 1961, were released on $500 bond each on June 17, 1961. [REDACTED]

[REDACTED] remained in Tallahassee while others in the group returned to Newark, New Jersey, the same date. Trial has been set for June 22, 1961, on charges of unlawful assembly.

Farris Bryant, Governor of Florida, has issued the following statement regarding the arrests at Tallahassee:

"Florida has accorded to the freedom riders the full protection of her laws. Regardless of cost or convenience, their trip across Florida was made peaceful and without incident. Unfortunately these people were not willing to leave Florida without creating discord and securing attendant publicity. In the last ten minutes of their scheduled stay, they embarked upon a new course designed to make trouble. If not deterred by local authorities they would have succeeded with damage to the poise and dignity of this state. We offer the full protection of the law to all in Florida who seek to pursue lawful purposes, but we issue no licenses granting immunity from arrest to those who violate our laws by their actions. Neither the cause nor the composition of any group of people frees them from their obligation as citizens."

The group of freedom riders which left Daytona Beach, Florida, on June 15, 1961, returned to Daytona Beach from Tampa, Florida, in private automobiles on the night of June 16, 1961. Their trip was without incident.

Julius W. Hobson, President, Washington, D. C., Chapter, Congress of Racial Equality, has advised that a freedom ride will originate from Washington, D. C., on June 21, 1961. The group will consist of a few people from New York, two from Philadelphia and two from Washington, D. C. They will travel by regularly scheduled bus but their itinerary has not yet been determined.

FAIR PLAY FOR CUBA COMMITTEE

The April 6, 1960, edition of "The New York Times" newspaper contains a full page advertisement captioned, "What is Really Happening in Cuba", placed by the Fair Play for Cuba Committee (FPCC). This advertisement announced the formation of the FPCC in New York City, listed various sponsors of the Committee and declared the FPCC intended to promulgate "the truth about revolutionary Cuba" to neutralize the distorted American press on Cuban affairs.

"The New York Times" edition of January 11, 1961, reported that at a hearing conducted before the United States Senate Internal Security Subcommittee on January 10, 1961, Dr. CHARLES A. SANTOS-BUCH identified himself as one of the organizers of the FPCC. Also, Dr. SANTOS-BUCH identified ROBERT TABER as a co-organizer of the FPCC and said TABER drafted the aforementioned FPCC advertisement. Dr. SANTOS-BUCH further testified that he and TABER obtained $3,500 from the Cuban Government through the son of Cuba's Foreign Minister, which funds, along with about $1,100 collected from supporters of the FPCC, paid for the cost of aforementioned advertisement in "The New York Times".

On October 3, 1960, a source advised that the Socialist Workers Party (SWP) in New York had become active in the FPCC, and that SWP members, in a recent FPCC election, had been able to remove several Communist Party (CP) members who were on the Executive Board of the FPCC and gain control of the organization. This source asserted that the SWP members believed that they had achieved a great influence in the course of the Cuban revolution through their control of the FPCC.

On February 10, 1961, a second source advised that PHIL BART, National Organizational Secretary and member of the National Committee, CP, USA, had reportedly stated recently that the FPCC had been captured by the Trotskyites, but that the CP had not given up in the FPCC.

The SWP and the CP, USA have been designated by the Attorney General of the United States pursuant to Executive Order #10450.

FAIR PLAY FOR CUBA COMMITTEE
CHICAGO CHAPTER

A source advised in October, 1960, that the Chicago Chapter of the Fair Play for Cuba Committee (FPCC) was formed during the summer of 1960 at Chicago, Illinois, under the direct guidance and leadership of RICHARD CRILEY, a member of the State Committee, Communist Party (CP) of Illinois. The Chicago Chapter, FPCC, maintains no headquarters at Chicago, but receives mail through Post Office Box 4555, Chicago 80, Illinois. Its meetings are held in public halls or homes of individual members.

A second source, in August, 1960, furnished a leaflet entitled, "What is Really Happening in Cuba?", distributed by the FPCC, Post Office Box 4555, Chicago 80, Illinois. The aims and purposes of the FPCC as set forth in this leaflet include the following: "To disseminate the truth, to combat untruth; to publish and distribute factual information which the United States mass media suppresses. In general, to contribute to foundations for peace, friendship and understanding between ourselves and the Cuban people." The leaflet reflects the FPCC plans to accomplish these aims: "By mailing of informational bulletins; organizing public meetings and forums; providing speakers, movies and slides for meetings of interested organizations; placing ads in newspapers; to visit Cuba and see for themselves what conditions really are."

The first source added that at a meeting of the Chicago Chapter, FPCC, held in Chicago on July 28, 1960, it was mentioned that the membership dues in the FPCC were $5 per year and it was decided by those present at the meeting that payment of the $5 dues would entitle one to dual membership in the national organization as well as the Chicago Chapter.

This same source advised that as of October, 1960, this Committee continued to exist, with the same aims and purposes and under the same direction.

The CP, USA has been designated by the Attorney General of the United States pursuant to Executive Order #10450.

CHICAGO COMMITTEE TO DEFEND THE BILL OF RIGHTS

The Chicago Committee to Defend the Bill of Rights (CCDBR), maintains headquarters in Room 811, 189 West Madison Street, Chicago, Illinois.

A source advised [redacted] the Communist Party (CP) met with RICHARD CRILEY, the then Executive Secretary of the Chicago Committee to Defend Democratic Rights (CCDDR), and a member of the Civil Liberties Commission, CP of Illinois. [redacted] CRILEY indicated that the climate in the United States on civil liberties and civil rights issues had changed to the extent that it was now possible to proceed to form an organization with broader mass support than the present CCDDR. By so doing, CRILEY believed that people who would not associate themselves with the CCDDR because of the narrow scope of the purposes of this organization, that is, defense of Smith Act victims, Taft-Hartley victims, etc., would join a Civil Liberties and Civil Rights organization built around a broader issue, such as the Abolishment of the House Committee on Un-American Activities (HCUA). [redacted] from CRILEY that any new organization that might evolve would protect the Party interests in the same manner as the old CCDDR [redacted] a broader organization than the CCDDR.

A second source advised on October 31, 1960, that a new organization known as the Chicago Committee to Defend the Bill of Rights was formally launched in Chicago at a meeting on [redacted]. The stated primary purpose of the new organization was to seek the abolition of the HCUA, and RICHARD CRILEY was named as its Executive Secretary, after having been the guiding force in arranging the [redacted] meeting.

The first source, [redacted] advised that CRILEY again attended a meeting of Illinois District CP leadership on [redacted] at which time he reported on the organizational meeting of the CCDBR. CRILEY stated that the immediate purpose of his organization is to obtain mass support to abolish the HCUA, but the new Committee purposes will also include defense of Smith Act and Taft-Hartley victims. He said there will be no formal affiliation with any national organization of similar purpose; however, the CCDBR, according to CRILEY, will consult and have liaison with national organizations having the same purpose. According to the source, the CP leadership agreed with the general direction of the CCDBR as outlined by CRILEY.

The second source advised on February 8, 1961, that the CCDBR continues to adhere to the same aims and purposes and operates under the same leadership.

The CP, USA, has been designated by the Attorney General of the United States pursuant to Executive Order #10450.

CHICAGO COMMITTEE TO DEFEND DEMOCRATIC RIGHTS,
Formerly known as Chicago Joint Defense Committee to Defeat the Smith Act

A source advised on April 15, 1958, that the Chicago Joint Defense Committee to Defeat the Smith Act (CJDC) was formed by the Communist Party (CP) in March, 1956.

A second source advised on July 17, 1958, that at a working conference of the CJDC held on June 8, 1958, at Chicago, Illinois, the name of the CJDC was changed to the Chicago Committee to Defend Democratic Rights (CCDDR). The purpose of the CCDDR, according to its "Statement of Principles and Organization" was to "...defend and extend the human rights embodied in the Bill of Rights...and to put an end to the political and racial persecutions which threaten American democracy today."

The second source further advised on May 18, 1960, that as of May, 1960, the CCDDR continued to function within the framework of its stated principles and that in accordance with its "Statement of Principles and Organization" had a number of "Working Committees" which included the Chicago Smith Act Families Committee, South Side Freedom Committee, and Taft-Hartley Working Committee. The source further stated that as of May, 1960, RICHARD CRILEY was serving as the Executive Secretary of the CCDDR.

This same source advised on February 8, 1961, that the CCDDR continued to operate until October 26, 1960 when the Chicago Committee to Defend the Bill of Rights (CCDBR) was formed and the offices and assets of what was formerly the CCDDR were taken over by the CCDBR. At the [] meeting, a referendum for approval of the above described action was called for, and subsequently, votes were solicited from "associates" of the old CCDDR. The source further advised that no formal dissolution meeting of the CCDDR was ever held, but for all intents and purposes the CCDDR ceased to exist on October 26, 1960, and the new CCDBR has functioned under the guidance of RICHARD CRILEY, its Executive Secretary, since that time. b7D

RICHARD CRILEY, according to a third source, was a member of the State Committee, CP of Illinois, as of February, 1961.

The CP, USA has been designated by the Attorney General of the United States pursuant to Executive Order #10450.

Bush -
The Attorney General, Mr. Robert Kennedy
Justice Department
Washington D. C.

Dear Sir:

This is to restate in writing the request which I made by telephone to [redacted] the Civil Rights Division, on Saturday, June 10, 1961.

At that time, and, to the best of my knowledge, at the present time, [redacted] was and still remains in jail in Jackson, Mississippi. He was arrested on Friday, June 2, 1961, as a Freedom Rider. Today's New York Times states that most of the Freedom Riders have been transferred to a state farm somewhere in Mississippi.

[redacted] am very much concerned about his present situation. On Sunday, June 12, 1961, I received a letter from him which was carried out of jail and mailed by a Freedom Rider who had left jail.

[redacted] believes, as I do, that he was jailed in violation of his rights. Since due process of law in the state of Mississippi has not afforded him protection of his rights, he believes that he has no alternative but to engage in an action which may attract the attention of those who can help him and the others who have been unjustly convicted.

In his letter he states that he will refuse to eat any food until he and all other Freedom Riders are set free. As of the date on his letter, he had not eaten for eight days (the period of time he had been in jail).

[redacted] He is a man of strong character and deep conviction. I believe he will die in jail before surrendering his rights.

I therefore appeal to you to take such action as you can in order to set him and the other Freedom Riders free. It is of great concern to me, as well as [redacted] to have your immediate reply, also, as I have stated, it is a question of life or death. I would appreciate knowing what, if anything, the Justice Department can do. If you find no legal means available to you, I would appreciate a reply so stating.

By the time this letter reaches you, [redacted] will have been without food for twelve days.

Very respectfully yours,

[redacted]

SAC Maynor, New Orleans, advised today that the following information had been received from Chief of Detectives M. B. Pierce, Jackson, Mississippi, Police Department.

Pierce had been informed that eight white freedom rider prisoners remaining in the city jail at Jackson told officers of the Jackson Police Department that officials of the Congress of Racial Equality (CORE) are planning to meet with Attorney General Kennedy on 6-16-61 and that the Attorney General is going to get them out of jail. Pierce does not know the source of the prisoner's information.
